The Frances Willard Memorial exercises at the Baptist church Monday night were good, but not largely attended. The music was good. The reading by Mrs. Julia Childs was excellent. The recitation by Mrs. R. S. Wolter was a fine selection and was well rendered. Mrs. Coleman of Oran read an instructive and practicable essay on the life of Frances Willard. Mrs. Kate Newton, state president of the W. C. T. U., made a few appropriate remarks at the close of the meeting which all appreciated.

There is to be a Tea Cake Social in the basement of the Methodist church Monday night. This social is for the membership and friends of the church. This notice constitutes an invitation to the reader to be present and make himself at home with us. You do not need to be a Methodist to get in; it is a good-fellowship social, and you are expected. Every woman in town who can make a good tea-cake is invited to send in a gallon of her best make. The committee of arrangement is: Mrs. W. C. Cracraft, Mrs. George S. Henderson, and Messrs. Carl Wallace, Charles Behrens and J. G. Heinberg. Ring up and tell Mr. Behrens that you are going to bake some tea-cakes for the social. If Monday night is an impossible night, then the social will take place the next night. An informal program will be arranged.

A novel and delightful party was that given last Friday evening by Mrs. Julia M. Child in honor of those who took part in the play "Mr. Bob". Games were played, social conversation indulged, and a jolly good time was had. During the evening instrumental and vocal music by Mrs. Child and Miss Kurre, and a recitation by John Ralph Mabrey, were much enjoyed. A dainty three-course luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Miss Mary LaPierre. Before the time of departing for home, Mrs. Child gave each one who took part in "Mr. Bob" a unique present suggestive of the recipient's particular part, and these were greatly appreciated. Those present were: Misses Mary LaPierre, Bess Litzenfeller, Flossie Kurre, Sara Davis and Frankie Lusk; Mesdames Ed Howard, John Mabrey, Albert Spradling and Wilson LaPierre; Messrs. Albert Spradling, Wilson LaPierre, Sloan Oliver, Clyde Mabrey, Stuart Haw, Glen Litzenfeller and John Ralph Mabrey.

Pocahontas.

Weather fine, health only common.

Roads are getting to be awfully muddy, and they ought to be dragged. I believe that each road district ought to employ a man the year round to keep the roads dragged and ditches open, and to haul gravel. I think it would benefit the public roads more than does a highway engineer.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Vogel went to Jackson Friday.

Prof. Clark Reid, Principal of the High School, was able to resume the school again Monday, after a severe attack of tonsillitis.

F. J. Schoen returned from St. Louis Friday with a nice line of spring goods. D. C. Thompson, also, has brought on his new line.

The little son of J. C. Whittaker is reported seriously sick with pneumonia.

Marice Thompson has moved into the mill house down in Milltown, and Thomas Reid has moved into the house he recently bought from Mr. Thompson.

M. F. Zorn had business with the county court Monday.

Saved a Soldier's Life.

Facing death from shot and shell in the civil war was more agreeable to J. A. Stone, of Kemp, Tex., than facing it from what doctors said was consumption. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough, that stuck to me in spite of all remedies for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 178 pounds." For Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Asthma, Hemorrhage, Hoarseness, Croup, Whooping Cough and lung trouble, its supreme. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that bids will be received by Fred Goyert, County Clerk of Cape Girardeau County, at the Court House in the City of Jackson, Missouri, until 12 o'clock, on the 11th day of April, 1910, for the erection of a county jail and sheriff's residence.

Bidders may submit proposals as follows:

1st. For the entire completion of the work.

2nd. For the general construction.

3d. For the iron and steel work.

All bids must be accompanied by a certified check equal to five per cent of the bid, made payable to John G. Putz, County Treasurer of Cape Girardeau County, as a guarantee that the successful bidder will enter into a contract and make the required bond.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

Plans can be seen at the office of the county clerk.

Done by order of the Cape Girardeau County Court, this 8th day of March, 1910.

FRED GOYERT, County Clerk.

Hoffmeister & Macom have just received their shipment of Spring Clothing. These garments are made by some of the best clothing manufacturers in the country. The suits are handsomely cut, tailor-fitting, and of the latest patterns.

The : Young : Man's : Bank : Account

A bank account at this bank will help a young man to realize the value of money. It will increase his self-respect, develop the spirit of thrift, train him in systematic and accurate methods of doing business, strengthen and develop his character, and give him influence among men. Besides, it is a convenient and safe way of paying bills, and every chance of loss by fire and thieves is entirely eliminated. An account with us will help you in many ways. $1.00 will start an account.

YOUR BUSINESS SOLICITED, APPRECIATED AND PROTECTED.

Charles Meyer Dead.

On March 2nd, at his home in the Cape, Charles Meyer departed this life and went to his reward. Mr. Meyer was born in Hanover, Germany, 66 years ago. He was a citizen of Cape Girardeau from boyhood, and raised a large and respected family. All who knew him loved him. His death is a loss to the city as to his family. Left to mourn his death are the devoted wife, one daughter, three sons, two brothers, three sisters and his aged mother.

The remains were laid to rest in the Hanover graveyard, on the Perryville road about four miles north of Cape Girardeau. Rev. Mr. Kirschke preached the funeral.

Notice to Teachers.

The regular teachers' examination will be held on the 25th and 26th of March, at the Normal building in Cape Girardeau.

Teachers raising the grade of their certificates and teachers making new ones will be required to take Agriculture in addition to subjects formerly given.

Respectfully,
JAS. T. McDONALD.

For Sale.
